

MR GOMEZ represented Chin Yoon Loy in both his Industrial Court claim against the Company for unlawful dismissal and the criminal prosecution against him. Mr Chin was awarded compensation of RM200,000 for his claim for unlawful dismissal. He was also discharged for all the criminal charges.

NATION

THE STAR SATURDAY September 17 1994 13

Ex-MD gets RM200,000 compensation

By HAZEL ONG

IPOH: A former company managing director was awarded RM200,000 as compensation for his unlawful dismissal five years ago following a settlement in the Industrial Court here.

Associated Air-Pak Industries (Aapi) Sdn Bhd decided on a settlement with Chin Yoon Loy halfway through the hearing on Wednesday.

The company said the settlement was reached without admission of liability.

It was also agreed that Chin would sell his shares to Aapi's board of directors.

Chin had brought the case to the Industrial Court in 1990, claiming that he had been unjustly dismissed.

He said he was employed as managing director and was also a company director.

Chin said when he sought approval to sell his shares, the Aapi board of directors resolved to remove him as managing director on Sept 30, 1989.

He said that on Nov 12, 1989, the board further resolved to remove him as company director.

The hearing was before court chairman Tan Kim Siong.

Former MD pleads not guilty 19/7/94

By HAZEL ONG

IPOH: A former managing director charged with four counts of cheating his company pleaded not guilty in a magistrate's court here yesterday.

Chin Yoon Loy, 45, was granted bail of RM2,000 for the first three charges and RM1,000 for the fourth charge, by magistrate Puan Indera Nehru. He raised the bail.

Indera fixed Dec 21 and Dec 22 for hearing.

Chin, who is alleged to have cheated Associated Air Pak Industries Sdn Bhd (AAPI) when he was the managing director, denied:

● DECEITFULLY approving a payment voucher and, therefore, cheated the then director, P. Chandran Kumar into signing a Development and Commercial Bank cheque for RM900.35 at the AAPI office on March 7, 1984;

● DECEITFULLY approving a payment voucher and, therefore, cheated Chandran into signing a D & C Bank cheque for RM563.20 at the same office on Oct 30, 1985; and

● DECEITFULLY claiming travelling allowances for five days instead of four and, therefore, cheated Chandran into signing a D & C Bank cheque for RM750 instead of RM600, on April 2, 1984.

He faces a separate charge of deceitfully approving a payment voucher for travelling allowances under the name of Ghazali Jusoh and, therefore, cheated Chandran Kumar into signing a D & C Bank cheque for RM750 on April 2, 1984.

Chin is charged under Section 420 of the Penal Code and can be jailed a maximum of seven years if convicted.

Earlier, counsel Jerald Allen Gomez said Chin had filed a suit at the Industrial Court against AAPI for unlawful dismissal.

He applied for the charges against Chin to be heard before the Industrial Court hearing in September, saying that since the main witness and complainant, Chandran, was also involved in the Industrial Court proceedings.

However, Indera dismissed the application.

"I do not see any conflict in both cases (although it involved the same parties) as one is a criminal case and the other is an Industrial Court matter," she said.

Sun Thursday September 26, 1996

Oct 28 decision on discharge application

By Law Hong San

IPOH, Wed: A magistrate's court here will decide on Oct 28 the application by the prosecution to a discharge not amounting to acquittal for a former managing director facing four counts of cheating.

Prosecuting officer chief inspector Jude Pereira made an application to magistrate S. Indra Nehru that the accused, Chin Yoon Loy, be given a discharge not amounting to an acquittal.

"I have received instruction that the DPP is reviewing Chin's case and has directed a fresh investigation. It involves the same exhibits and witnesses and the prosecution wants a joint trial," Pereira said.

Chin, former managing director of Associated Air Pak Industries Sdn Bhd (AAPI) is charged with deceitfully approving a payment voucher for a travel claim by Ghazali Jusoh.

He is accused of deceiving the former AAPI director Chandra Kumar into signing a D & C Bank cheque for RM 750 on April 2, 11 years ago.

Chin faces three other charges of cheating Kumar into signing a D & C bank cheque at the AAPI office at Jelapang Industrial Estate here on March 7, 1984.

Defence counsel Jerald Gomez submitted that his client's case should not be put on hold for an indefinite period without acquittal when the prosecution is unable to proceed.